

THE WHITE HOUSE

Dear Tribal Leaders,

The White House is excited to announce that the 2021 White House Tribal Nations Summit will officially take place on November 15th and 16th 2021. Please note that the dates have changed. This year the Summit will take place virtually.

Please submit your registration by Friday, November 5, 2021. If you have already summited your registration for the Summit, you do not need to re-register.

Click here to register for the 2021 Tribal Nations Summit

The Summit will feature panel discussions and listening sessions with high level Administration officials on Tribal priorities. Your input is highly valued and we ask that you fill out this short questionnaire by Friday, November 5th.

Click here to fill out the questionnaire

President Biden and Senior Administration Officials look forward to hosting a robust and meaningful dialogue with Tribal leaders on key issues, policy initiatives, and goals for Indian Country. To better reflect the federal government's Nation-to-Nation relationship with Tribal Nations, we have changed the name from a conference to a summit. The Biden-Harris Administration is deeply committed to honoring our trust and treaty responsibilities with federally recognized Tribes and the Summit provides an opportunity for Tribal leaders to engage directly with officials from the highest levels of the Administration.

Additional details about the Summit are forthcoming. Please be sure to register for the 2021 Tribal Nations Summit by Friday, November 5th.

Click here to register for the 2021 Tribal Nations Summit

If you have any questions, please reach out to TNS@who.eop.gov.

Respectfully,

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs
White House Domestic Policy Council