

PRAYER POINTS

Week of November 8

Prayer Points from ministry leaders around the world:

- Nicaragua held their presidential election on Sunday. Please pray for peace in the weeks following the results.
- A Resonate missionary who serves in the Middle East asks you to pray for a local pastor he's discipling and mentoring. This pastor is experiencing intense persecution, but he is faithfully leading his church and pursuing Christ. Please pray for this pastor's safety.
- Resonate missionaries Gail and Yonas Gorfe, who serve in Ethiopia, ask you to pray for an end to the civil war in the country. Pray that the people of the country will heal from past divisions and tension and move forward
- Campus Ministry at Grand Valley State University, a Resonate partner in Michigan, is working to equip university students to lead micro-churches. Pray that the Holy Spirit will work through these young leaders!
- Resonate missionaries in Central Asia give thanks that a believer's family recently decided to follow Christ. Praise God! Please pray for the members of this family as they grow as disciples of Christ.
- Pray for Resonate church plant partners as they share the love of Christ in their communities. Ask the Holy Spirit for opportunities to connect with neighbors and share the gospel, both through actions and conversations.

modules and graduated! It took these committed teachers and school administrators three years! Please pray for them as they put what they learned into practice.

Your prayer matters!

We recently asked you to pray for Educational Care training in West Africa. Thank you for praying!

A group of 19 educators recently completed all of the

Thank you for your faithful prayers. To subscribe to Prayer Points, visit www.resonateglobalmission.org/subscribe